BUCHANAN SEEKS PLACE ON DISTRICT COMMITTEE

Friends Hear that Illinois Representative Would Press Socialist Measures.

Friends of Representative Buchanan, of Illinois, have been informed that he will make a determined attempt to be assigned to the District Committee of the House in the Sixty-fourth Congress. Buchanan, it is understood, desires this assignment in order to assume the leadership in pressing certain socialistic measures which have been suggested in the agitation against the half-and-half plan.

Buchanan is a Democrat and an extremist in labor legislation and attacks against wealth. He recently came into prominence as president of the so-called Labor's National Peace Council, in the ostensible organization of which he assisted.

He publicly resigned from the position after the organization had been discredited as an arm of the pro-German propaganda financed by German money and legislation designed to embarrass President Wilson.

LABOR WILL PROTEST NONUNION CONTRACTS

Maryland and D. C. Federation to Take Action—Parts of Constitution Changed.

A protest soon will be made to officials of the Postoffice Department against the letting of contracts for the department's printing to nonunion firms. This was decided on at yesterday's session of the convention of the Maryland State and District of Columbia Federation of Labor, which committee will be named to handle the matter.

Last night the delegates were the guests of the local Printers' Union. Yesterday afternoon a slight-sewing tour of the city was taken.

Most of yesterday's session was devoted to changing parts of the constitution. It was voted to hold the legislative conventions every other year at Annapolis, where more influence could be brought to bear on the legislature. This legislative convention in the future will be held in March.

The Town Crier

Hundreds attended a lawn fete on the grounds of the Washington-Yauma Home, 211 C street northwest, last night for the benefit of the home. The fete began at 8 o'clock and continued until near midnight. In addition to the refreshments, there were refreshment booths.

Children of the Montessori playgrounds will take part in a production of "Cinderella" at a lawn fete to be held on the playgrounds, 1500 Kalorama road northwest, for the benefit of Friendship House tonight. The playlet will be followed by an exhibit of the industrial work of the children during the summer, which includes basketry and sewing.

Eight new members have been initiated by Old Glory Camp, No. 3, Modern Woodmen of the World, Commander Carl Ford presided and the degree team was in charge of Lieut. Col. George Weicher.

A meeting of resident members of the Thirtieth Army Corps will be held at Grand Army Hall, 112 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Harrington Has Walk-away;
Lee Carries Prince Georges

Special Wire to The Washington Herald.
Baltimore, Sept. 15.—State Comptroller Emerson C. Harrington will have 55 of the 120 votes for the Democratic nomination for governor in the State convention that will meet on September 23 to ratify the results of yesterday's primary.

His opponent, Senator Blair Lee, will have 29 votes.

Albert C. Ritchie, the Harrington candidate for the nomination for attorney general, has carried all of the counties carried by Mr. Harrington, and in addition, carried three districts in the State. Senator William Milnes Maloy, the Lee candidate for attorney general, carried only the third district. Mr. Ritchie was the only Harrington candidate to receive a popular majority in the city.

Lee Beaten Outside Baltimore.

Hugh A. McMullen, the Harrington candidate for comptroller, has won over William B. Copper, the Lee candidate, but the latter carried three of the city districts. Mr. McMullen won only in the fourth.

Mr. Harrington carried the first and fourth city districts. Each district is entitled to seven votes in the convention. He also carried Allegany County, seven votes; Anne Arundel, five votes; Baltimore County, five votes; Calvert, three votes; Caroline, four votes; Carroll, five votes; Dorchester, five votes; Garrett, four votes; Harford, four votes; Howard, three votes; Kent, three votes; Queen Anne, three votes; Talbot, four votes; Washington, six votes; Wicomico, four votes, and Worcester, four votes.

Senator Lee carried the second and third city districts, each of which is entitled to seven votes in the convention. He carried Prince Georges County, five votes; Charles, three votes; Frederick, six votes; Montgomery, five votes; St. Mary's, three votes; and Somerset, four votes.

Mr. Harrington carried the first city district by 55 votes and the fourth district by 29 votes. Senator Lee carried the second district by 62 votes and the third by 152 votes.

Organization vs. Organization.

It was the closest primary that has been held in the city since the state-wide primary law was passed. Likewise, it was the first time in the history of state-wide primaries that the organization has lined up, against the state organization.

The result was a big surprise to a great many people, underestimating the strength of Frank Keller, a city leader, and overestimating the strength of Mayor Preston, and John A. Mahon, another city leader, felt that the organization was represented by the mayor and Mahon had all the better of the situation.

Identically, there never has been such a split in the organization. O. E. Wells, of Baltimore, the Republican candidate for governor against William F. Warburton, of Cecil county, was given a sweeping victory. Wells carried the whole of Baltimore city and nineteen out of the twenty-three counties. Warburton only carried Anne Arundel, Calvert, Cecil and Dorchester counties. Wells will have 112 votes in the convention and Warburton seventeen.

In the city, Robert Biggs, Democrat, and Morris A. Super, Republican, were nominated for chief judgeship; William Curran, Democrat, and William F. Broening, Republican, nominated for State's attorney; Thomas F. McNulty, Democrat, and F. A. Robinson, Republican, nominated for sheriff.

Lee Carries Prince Georges.

Hyattsville, Md., Sept. 15.—Unofficial returns from Prince Georges County give Blair Lee for governor 1,654 and Harrington 1,664, or a Lee majority of twenty-four. Harrington and Roberts, the latter candidate for State's attorney, are the only two organization candidates apparently defeated.

S. Marvin Peach, the successful anti-organization candidate for State's attorney, had the advantage over his opponent, that he is a resident of Hyattsville, a big Democratic district. Mr. Peach's majority in Hyattsville was 102, while Blair Lee, running on the same ticket, was defeated by five.

The count: For governor, Harrington, 1,664; Lee, 1,654. For comptroller, McMullen, 1,551; Copper, 1,625. For State's attorney, Peach, 1,608. For State central committee, Addison, 1,416; Briscoe, 1,632; Duckett, 1,496; Fox, 1,770; Hardy, 1,327; MacFarland, 1,455; Marbury, 1,295; Perrie, 1,294; Ray, 1,317; Suit, 1,315.

Delegates to the State convention: Allen, 1,996; Bowie, 1,242; Brooke, 1,555; Byrley, 1,242; Gabriel, 1,214; MacBruder, 1,455; Miller, 1,306; Sanbury, 1,312; Sweeney, 1,042; Traband, 1,049.

For house of delegates: Arnold, 1,771; Blanford, 1,612; Dallam, 1,340; Mallery, 1,245; Matchett, 1,113; Phelps, 1,464; Sasser, 363; Thorne, 1,240; Van Horn, 1,854; Wheatley, 1,406.

Fuller for County Treasurer.

Clerk of circuit, Robert Hall, 1,175; Summerfield D. Hall, 1,786; B. D. Stephen, 322.

For county treasurer, Augustine T. Brooke, 1,675; Edward A. Fuller, 1,762.

For State's attorney, S. Marvin Peach, 1,608; Clarence M. Roberts (present incumbent), 1,564.

For county commissioner, Gul H. Claggett, 1,568; Theodore B. Middleton, 1,368.

For sheriff, George S. Harrison, 1,298; Benjamin Ogde, 1,346.

For judges of Orphans' Court, R. Irving Bowie, 1,684; C. C. Clark, 222; William G. Fischer, 1,204; James A. Heiskell, 1,339; Albert J. Jenkins, 1,306; J. Henry Murray, 1,077; John A. Schultz, 1,258.

The judges of the Orphans' Court nominated are the present incumbents: Judge Heiskell, endorsed by the anti-organization, defeated his organization opponent, Jenkins.

The official count will be made tomorrow. Edward A. Fuller, nominated for county treasurer, and S. Marvin Peach, attorney general, are both residents of Hyattsville, Fuller being the editor of the Hyattsville Independent.

Anti-Wilson Democratic Mass Meeting Wins Three Converts

The first mass meeting of the National Democratic Association of the United States, Inc., was held in Old Mason Temple last night. Fourteen men, one woman, two youths, and three newspaper men were present—at the start.

Lorenzo G. Warfield, secretary, presided, and did all the talking. Mr. Warfield was fortified with a large number of printed notices, which read as follows:

"Warning."

"It having come to our notice that an effort will be made to break up this meeting tonight, this is to give due notice that all who undertake to disturb the orderly procedure of this meeting will do so at their peril. Watchful waiting is our hobby."

Before the meeting Mr. Warfield confided to the newspaper men that the warning was directed against Walter Costello, a Wilson Democrat and brother of the District national committee man, John Costello.

Just then the orchestra struck up a one-step in the next room where a dancing academy was giving its semi-weekly dance, and the two youths and one man departed hastily for the livelier scene. Mr. Warfield, determined to call the meeting to order, having first announced that there would be no speaking except what he did himself.

Mr. Warfield read a statement telling his auditors what they were going to do to defeat Woodrow Wilson next year.

"We have no candidate to propose," he declared, "for the Democratic nomination, but we do oppose Woodrow Wilson, and if there are any persons in this hall tonight who favor him for renomination they have no moral right to be here, and we hope they will withdraw."

"I favor him for renomination," spoke up James S. Esby-Smith, a local attorney, "and I therefore withdraw." He suited the action to the word.

"I shall next pass around for your signatures pledges to work against Woodrow Wilson's renomination," declared Mr. Warfield. More auditors slipped out the door.

Only three pledges were signed. Then Mr. Warfield, Percy Metzger, an attorney, and the three newspaper men were left in undisputed possession of the hall. Mr. Warfield declared the meeting adjourned.
